Term Life and Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D) Insurance can provide money for your family if you die or are diagnosed with a terminal illness.

How does it work?
You choose the amount of coverage that’s right for you, and you keep coverage for a set period of time, or “term.” If you die during that term, the money can help your family pay for basic living expenses, final arrangements, tuition and more. AD&D Insurance is also available, which pays a benefit if you survive an accident but have certain serious injuries. It pays an additional amount if you die from a covered accident.

Why is this coverage so valuable?
If you buy a minimum of $10,000 of coverage now, you can increase your coverage in the future up to $200,000 to meet your growing needs. You won’t have to answer any health questions or take a health exam.

Who can get Term Life coverage?
If you are actively at work at least 30 hours per week, you may apply for coverage for:

You get up to $500,000 of AD&D coverage for yourself in $10,000 increments to a maximum of 10 times your earnings. What else is included?

A “Living” Benefit
If you are diagnosed with a terminal illness with less than 24 months to live, you can request 50% of your life insurance benefit (up to $750,000) while you are still living. This amount will be taken out of the death benefit, and may be taxable.

Waiver of premium
Your cost may be waived if you are totally disabled for a period of time.

Portability
You may be able to keep coverage if you leave the company, retire or change the number of hours you work.

Employees or dependents who have a sickness or injury having a material effect on life expectancy at the time their group coverage ends are not eligible for portability.

Delayed Effective Date: If your spouse or child has a serious injury, sickness, or disorder, or is confined, their coverage may not take effect. Payment of premium does not guarantee coverage. Please refer to your policy contract or see your plan administrator for an explanation of the delayed effective date provision that applies to your plan.

No questions or health exams required for AD&D coverage.
